

Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation
Division of Professional Regulation

NAME OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION:	Loyola University Chicago, Marcella Niehoff School of Nursing
POSITION:	Full-Time, Non-Tenure-Track Clinical Instructor, Undergraduate Community Health
RESPONSIBILITIES:	The Marcella Niehoff School of Nursing of Loyola University Chicago is currently seeking a full-time (12 month) non-tenure track clinical instructor at the undergraduate nursing level in community health.
MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:	Minimum of a master's degree in nursing. Recent teaching experience in clinical settings is desirable. Licensure in the state of Illinois as a Registered Nurse or Advanced Practice Nurse (APN, CNM, CNS, CRNA). Certification in specialty area preferred, if available.
PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:	A doctorate (PhD in nursing or DNP).
TO APPLY:	To apply: https://www.careers.luc.edu/applicants/jsp/shared/frameset/Frameset.jsp?time=1454099398030 All School of Nursing faculty opportunities: http://www.luc.edu/nursing/about/facultyopportunities/ Questions and information: Dr. Cathlin Poronsky Chair, Search Committee Loyola University Chicago Marcella Niehoff School of Nursing cporonsky@LUC.edu